

NATIONAL CARPET

NATIONAL CARPET is an indie/garage rock band from Easthampton, Massachusetts. 2006 saw the debut release of their self-titled EP and two years of shows throughout New England and New York City. The band went back into the studio in 2008 and in April of 2009 released Past Perfect, a twelve-song LP enclosed here for your consideration. Thank you.

The band has shared the stage with Dinosaur Jr., Elf Power, Mark Mulcahy, Winterpills, New Radiant Storm King, Spouse, Mark Schwaber, and many others known and unknown.

In February 2010, Peyton Pinkerton (New Radiant Storm King, Silver Jews, Pernice Brothers) joined founding members J. Johnson, Anne Lozier, and Kevin Smith. The four-piece has begun work on a new album.
